

The Iberoamerican Centre (IAC)
and the Centre for Middle Eastern Studies (CMES) at Metropolitan University Prague cordially invite you to a conference on

THE FOREIGN POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES

The Trump Administration has outlined its America First foreign policy, which is focused on American interests and American national security

This conference inquires into how the presidency change at the White House is likely to reshape the foreign policy outlines of the United States of America for the Middle East, Europe, Asia and the Americas. Distinguished speakers contemplate what can be expected from the new administration's foreign policy focus on American interests and American national security in the coming years.

DATE

31 March 2017

9:00 am – 2:00 pm

VENUE

Metropolitan University Prague
Prokopova 100/16, Prague 3 - Žižkov

PROGRAMME

09:00 Conference Opening

09:20 The New US Administration and the Middle East – Israeli Perspective
Prof. Eytan Gilboa, Israel Public Diplomacy Forum, Israel

10:05 The New US Administration through the Arab Eyes
Dr. Abdelilah Bouasria, L'Ecole de Gouvernance et d'Economie de Rabat, Morocco

10:50 Coffee Break

11:15 US Foreign Policy: Themes, Process, and Implications for Europe
Dr. Schuyler Foerster, Fulbright Commission's Distinguished Chair in Social Studies at Masaryk University. Colorado College in Colorado Springs, USA

12:00 A Triangle on its Head?: Russia, China, and the US under Trump
Dr. Martin Hála, Director of Sinopsis.cz, a joint project of AcaMedia and the Institute of East Asian Studies at Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic

12:45 The US, Latin America and Cuba
Rafael Gordo Núñez, independent journalist, Cuba
Dr. Kateřina Březinová, Head of Iberoamerican Center, Metropolitan University Prague, Czech Republic

13:30 Closing Remarks

Please register at registrace.mup.cz