The Central European Economic Journal (CEEJ) announces a competition for best papers presented at the 7th international conference on IFRS: Global Rules & Local Use – Beyond the Numbers. The Programme Committee will select best papers and recommend to publish their extended versions in CEEJ. The results of the competition will be announced during the conference.

The Central European Economic Journal (CEEJ) is a leading economic journal in the region of Central Europe, which has been published since 2001. The CEEJ publishes papers that are devoted to general economics, including macroeconomics, open macroeconomics, microeconomics, quantitative methods and econometrics, finance and the methodology of economics. The aim of the CEEJ is to publish high-quality papers relating to important issues of economic theory and practice.

The Central European Economic Journal is a peer-reviewed, open-access journal. All articles undergo a double-blind peer-review process. The CEEJ does not charge for the publishing process nor for approval of text for publication. An electronic version of all papers is available (eISSN 2543-6821) at both the CEEJ website and on the Sciendo \(De Gruyter\) open platform.

Reasons to submit:

- transparent, comprehensive and fast double-blind peer review;
- a convenient, web-based and widely known manuscript submission and tracking system;
- an efficient route to fast-track publication and full advantage of Sciendo's publishing platform with language verification;
- submission of papers, the publishing process and approval of text for publication is all free of charge.

The deadline for submitting papers is 15th January 2020.

Each article should be prepared in accordance with the guidance given in the "Instructions for Authors" section of our website: <http://ceej.wne.uw.edu.pl/for-authors/>. Articles should be changed in min. 50% compared to the version published in the conference proceedings and should have a slightly changed title. Articles for publication should be submitted via the manuscript submission system, available at journal's website.
